Robert Eadon Leader, published works
H.C. Fanshawe, information about Fanshawe and Bullock families. (private collection)
Sheffield Miscellany
The Gentleman’s Magazine, drawing/ engraving of hall by Grimm
Rev. George Hall, History of Chesterfield
Ebenezer Rhodes, Peak Scenery
Dr Pegge, writings of
James Pilkington, A view of the Present State of Derbyshire with an Account of its Most Remarkable Antiquities
David Peter Davies, 1811, A new Historical and Descriptive View ...... from Remotest to the Present Times
Thoroton Society papers
Note: other sources are also mentioned in Chantrey Land in the Lords of the Manor chapter so these need to be properly collated and then checked where possible to make sure all the relevant information about Norton Hall and its park and associated land is documented.

Work is then needed to look at the sources for 20th century – books, papers, newspapers, sales plans.

Keywords for searches include: Norton, Norton Hall, names of Lords of the Manor and later owners of the estate, deer park.

Method:
For all the documentary sources, you will need to make notes of the author, title, date and edition of the document and where the copy that was used was found, e.g. library/ archives or internet/ website.

When you find information that mentions the owners, the park, the hall, associated woodland, fishponds, quarries etc and the uses or changes to the park etc., then make a note of the page numbers where appropriate and write out or make a copy of the information. This can be handwritten but will then need to be made into a digital copy to go into the project file.

Please also record your name and the date that the research was carried out so that if there is any queries later we can track this back.
